LLOYDS TOUR OF BRITAIN

YOUR STREET, CENTRE STAGE

The Lloyds Tour of Britain is coming through your area. Here are 5 reasons to be roadside for the race!

1. World-class sport, right on your doorstep
The Lloyds Tour of Britain brings elite professional racing past your front door. Free to watch, no ticket needed.

2. Your community, on the map
For one day, professional cyclists, TV cameras and the eyes of the sport are on your area. It's an exciting moment to feel proud of your hometown and join in the community festivities.

3. An experience like no other
The roar of the crowd, the whir of wheels as the peloton flies past, the buzz of a whole street turned out together.

4. A brilliant, free family day out
Seeing real athletes up close can spark a lifelong love of cycling in kids.

5. A lift for local business
Cafes, pubs and shops along the route often see real benefit from race-day crowds and atmosphere. Come and support them and the riders.

BINGO

LLOYDS TOUR OF BRITAIN

How many can you spot as the race comes through?
Tick them off as you go!

Green leader's jersey	Police motor bike	Someone ringing a bell
A helicopter overhead	A homemade cheering sign	Team support car
Bunting or street decorations	Someone waving a flag	A black horse on a green sign
Someone in fancy dress	A photographer with a big lens	The whole peloton together

SNAP IT, SEND IT, WIN IT!

Filled in your bingo card? Take a photo of it (or of you watching the race) and email it to TOB@britishcycling.org.uk with your name for a chance to win a prize.

Winners announced 08/09/2026.
By entering you agree to competition terms - britishcycling.org.uk/compterms.
We'll only use your email to contact you about this competition.